

Graduate Faculty Council

November 8, 2022

1:30 to 2:30 p.m.

Present: Julie Aultman, Alexander Galazyuk, Angelo DeLucia, Carli Toth, Chelsea Luli, Erin Franks, Greg Koman, Jesse Young, Jodie Turosky, Katherine Miranda, Kelly Shrock, Lynda McPhail, Matthew Smith, Nate Flath, Natalie Bonfine, Nicholas Osborne, Jason Constable, Phil Jenkinson, Priya Raman, Rebecca Fischbein, Scott Wisneski, Vahagn Ohanyan, Vivian Von Gruenigen, James Barret, Douglas Moses

Absent: Bernhard Fassl, Jesse Young

Meeting Minutes

Agenda	Discussion	Action
1. Call to Order	Call to order at 1:30 p.m. by Dr. Julie Aultman
2. Approval of October 18, 2022, meeting minutes	Motion to approve by Scott Wisneski and seconded by Nate Flath	Vote
3. Updates: a. New COGS Administrative Coordinator b. December GFC Update	a. Alex Peralta will join the COGS team on November 28, 2022, as Administrative Coordinator. b. The December GFC will be held over lunch in-person.	Informational
4. New Business: a. Early Assurance Admissions Proposal & Process	Doug Moses, M.D., Associate Dean of Admissions & Student Affairs and Clinical Professor, Pediatrics and James Barrett, Sr. Executive Director of Strategic Enrollment Initiatives presented to the Graduate Faculty Council members. The informational presentation comprised the new proposal and process for early assurance admissions. It outlined the early assurance process with the College of Graduate Studies and the College of Medicine through 2026. The presentation included data referencing the MCAT, Diversity, Residency, NEOMED, and Partner School statistics. As well as information pertaining to the admissions process for COGS and COM. More information on this process will be forthcoming with no significant changes until 2026.	Informational
5. Open Discussion (if time permits).	Time did not permit for open discussion. The meeting concluded at 2:35 p.m.	Discussion