

Coping Strategies for Distressing experiences- Distraction and Focusing

Identify activities you have tried or would be willing to try. Attempt the activity and then rate level of helpfulness →	Not Tried	Not Helpful	Somewhat Helpful	Very Helpful
Humming
Read quietly to self
Listening to music
Praying / Meditating
Using a mantra
Painting
Using imagery
Walking in the fresh air
Phoning a friend
Exercising
Using a relaxation tape
Doing yoga
Taking a warm bath
Calling your mental health professional
Attending a social event
Watching TV
Doing a crossword or other puzzle
Playing a computer game
Trying a new hobby
Look Point Name activity
Practice slow breathing exercises
Ear plug in one ear; read to self
Practice gratitude (make a list; write a letter)
Put together and use healthy self-soothing kit
List your own activity:

*When possible, list specifics like, what day, times, who is involved (names), where, etc.