Crisis Intervention Team International 2023: So Much to Learn in Detroit, Michigan!

By: Em Ribnik

As part of a contingency of over 70 registrants/attendees from Ohio, staff of the Criminal Justice Coordinating Center of Excellence (CJ CCoE) and CIT partners from across the state traveled north to attend this year's Crisis Intervention Team International Conference. The conference was held August 13 (with special pre-conference offerings) to August 16, 2023, at the Marriott Detroit Renaissance Center on Lake Erie in downtown Detroit, Michigan.

Along with having the second largest group from one state to attend the conference, Ohio also boasted having three presentations. Shannon Ortiz, Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (LPCC) and CEO and Founder of Light After Loss, presented "Postvention is Prevention: CIT in the Aftermath of a shared her story of the immediate aftermath of her husband's suicide and the impact that CIT-trained law enforcement officers had on her during the unimaginable. Her presentation combined her clinical and personal experiences to discuss postvention after a suicide death and how CIT trained officers can not only support those left behind after a tragedy like suicide, but also be a part of initial healing.

Suicide" and shared her st

Douglas Nichols, Richanda Jackson-Birks, and Joicelyn Weems from the ADAMHS Board of Cuyahoga County, presented "Crisis Intervention Training for Community Partners: Our Friends without Badges". Observing the increasing nationwide trend of more communities seeking to have mental and behavioral health professionals respond to some mental health crisis calls, their presentation focused on creating, recruiting for, and facilitating a CIT training for mental and behavioral health professionals. They discussed the elements of CIT training that are transferrable to mental and behavioral health professionals, as well as appropriate adjustments to make the training role specific for a community's crisis response system.

L-R: Spencer Grummel (Lorain County Adult Probation), Arielle Edwards (Lorain County CIT Program Coordinator), and Jeff Wilshire (Lorain County Adult Probation)

Also, from the ADAMHS of Cuyahoga County, Carole Ballard and Anya Nazarenko presented "Using CIT Data to Develop Continuous Improvement Partnerships with Community Providers". Showcasing the Bravos Incident Reporting System for compiling their CIT crisis intervention contacts, they discussed Cleveland's efforts to create and nurture data centric, CQI partnerships with community providers. Specifically, they highlighted the data that can be gleaned from their Bravos system to identify locations experiencing larger clusters of CIT incidents. Using their data, they fostered relationships and partnerships with community providers to address the needs of those they serve.

The attendees from Ohio had the opportunity to briefly meet and introduce themselves to each other after the conclusion of sessions on Tuesday.

With over 1,500 individuals in attendance, the 2023 Crisis Intervention Team International Conference was filled with opportunities to connect, learn, and explore CIT from across the country and the world.

L-R: Carole Ballard (Cuyahoga County CIT Program Coordinator) and Latrice Flowers (Lucas County CIT Program Coordinator)
