OPCSMH 2023-2024 Webinar Series

EATING DISORDERS & BODY POSITIVITY ON CAMPUS

This webinar focuses on understanding of etiology and comorbidities of eating disorders, and how they present on the college campus. The presenter will share how to identify students at risk and initiate cross-campus referrals. Additionally, resources for treatment coordination across campus and the state will be provided. A special note will be made to the role of body image within eating disorder treatment as well as treatment as a singular concern, and include resources for body positive campus programs.
