THE POWER OF STUDENT VOICE: SUPPORTING CAMPUS MENTAL HEALTH

Join us as Mr. Anthony Sartori, Executive Director & Founder of Evolving Minds, shares his transformative journey, from struggling with mental health in college to creating meaningful campus-wide impact. He explores how finding community led to healing, and how his personal transformation inspired him to create a student club and partner with university leadership to enhance student mental health support at the University of Maryland. Through practical examples, participants will learn how student initiative and collaboration with staff, faculty, and administration can lead to positive outcomes, including expanded mental health training programs and institutional commitment to student well-being.
