Data current as of Fall Census

COM Year 1 to Year 2 Progression Rate by Matriculating Cohort

The visualization below displays the Year 1 to Year 2 Progression Rate (%) for each Matriculating Cohort within the M.D. program. Data are presented for the five most recent Matriculating Cohorts for which Year 1 to Year 2 progression data are available.

Key Definitions:

Matriculating Cohort: Includes all First-Time and any Previously Admitted Students officially starting their M.D. program as of Fall 15-Day (Census) Date.

Year 1 to Year 2 Progression Rate: Based on the number of students belonging to a Matriculating Cohort who successfully advance to Year 2 of the same program as of the Fall 15-Day (Census) Date. The initial Matriculating Cohort Count serves as the denominator.

COM Year 1 to Year 2 Progression Data Table

The data table below presents the complete Year 1 to Year 2 progression figures, including total matriculants, underlying Figure 1.
